Round Five of CA COVID-19 Relief Grants for Small Businesses Starts March 25-31, 2021

Grants up to $25,000 support small businesses and nonprofits impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic

Monterey Park, Calif. – March 17, 2021 – The fifth round of applications for the California COVID-19 Relief Grants for Small Businesses will open on March 25 and will run through March 31, 2021.

Applicants who submitted all necessary documents in the previous round and met eligibility requirements, but did not receive a grant do not need to reapply. Their applications will be rolled over for consideration in the fifth round. New applicants will need to apply online at <https://abala.mylendistry.com/#/grant>.

The CA Small Business COVID-19 Relief Grant Program provides grants ranging from $5,000 to $25,000 to micro and small businesses and nonprofits that have been impacted by the pandemic. It is not a first-come, first-served program, nor a rolling approval process. All applications will be reviewed following the application deadline.

To help you with the application process, the Asian Business Association (ABA) is hosting a webinar to discuss Round Five details and provide assistance and guidance on Tuesday, March 23, 2021, at 11:00 a.m. Please register online for the webinar at www.abala.org.

For more information on the webinar, grant requirements, and eligibility, please contact the City of Monterey Park Economic Development team at 626-307-1385. Our team can also assist with other resources to help Monterey Park businesses recover and keep workers employed.
